RE: FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST

Dear Sir:

On April 18, 1977 I requested from your Agency any records pertaining to [REDACTED] STAT

After three (3) years I am wondering why my request has been given the lowest priority of any request ever made to any agency.

In your letter of May 16, 1979 you mentioned finding some added records and the need to review them. It was, according to you, not possible to fill part of my request, therefore I had to wait until all review was completed. I now wonder why I received part of my request on January 31, 1978 and prior to that you forwarded "other Agency" records.

It is one thing to wait in turn to have my request filled, but to have my request ignored by the CIA is not comforting.

I need not remind you of the wording and case law pertaining to 5 USC 552 in relation to time limitations. Depending upon your response I will determine whether an Administrative appeal should be taken on your refusal to conform to the Statute.
